

PUBLIC NOTICE OF STAKEHOLDER MEETINGS AND OPEN HOUSES

FOR PROJECT DEFINITION CONSULTATION, FALL 2012
(SEPTEMBER 10 – OCTOBER 19, 2012)

BC Hydro is inviting communities, stakeholders and the public to participate in the upcoming Project Definition Consultation, Fall 2012 for the Site C Clean Energy Project (Site C).

Site C is a proposed third dam and hydroelectric generating station on the Peace River. Site C is being proposed as part of BC Hydro's overall program to invest in and renew the province's electricity system.

Topics will include:

- Worker Accommodation
- Transportation
- Clearing
- Agriculture

How Input Will Be Used

Public and stakeholder input received will help inform project plans, project design and mitigation plans as BC Hydro prepares the Environmental Impact Statement for review in the environment assessment process in 2013.

Project Definition Consultation materials will be available online beginning September 10, 2012.
